DAY 1 Lima

Upon arrival you'll be met at the airport by a Knowmad Adventures representative and taken to your accommodations centrally located in the Miraflores neighborhood. Explore Peru's diverse and delectable cuisine and visit some of the city's many sights and museums on your own or, depending on your time, we can arrange a guided exploration of the city or you can learn to make ceviche with a local chef on a culinary discovery.*

- No meals - Costa del Sol Ramada Airport Hotel

DAY 2 Sacred Valley

After a short morning flight to the former Incan capital of Cusco you'll be met at the airport and taken by private van through the Sacred Valley of the Andes where you'll have lunch and continue on to your accommodations in the town of Ollantaytambo. You will have the afternoon at your leisure and may choose to explore the charming village on your own, visit the vast ruin complex clinging to the mountainside above town*, or simply soak up the views from your hotel as you acclimatize to the altitude.

- B, L - La Casona de Yucay

DAY 3 Sacred Valley Villages and the Weavers of Amaru

After breakfast you'll head by van along the Sacred Valley past the communities of Calca, Coya, Lamay and Pisac. From here the van goes completely off the map winding up a small dirt road, which takes you through remote Andean villages and arrives to the community of the Amaru people. This isolated community holds strongly to their ancient customs and practices a largely subsistence lifestyle on the slopes of the Andes. The Amaru will proudly open their village to you where you will learn of their lifestyle and traditions. Among other things, take part in gathering plants used as natural dyes, learn of their medicinal and culinary properties, and see how Peru's world-renowned textiles are woven and brought to life.

Stay for lunch with the Amaru or enjoy a picnic amongst the Pisac ruins that sprawl down the mountainside towards town. Afterwards, hike along the high-mountain terraces and through the ruins before descending to Pisac – one of Peru's largest and most vibrant markets – where you can bargain with Andean campesinos for handcrafted wares. Return to your hotel for a relaxing evening.

- B, L - La Casona de Yucay

DAY 4 Inca Trail – Sacred Valley – Llaqtapata

Geared up and ready to go, today you begin the Inca Trail departing in the morning to Piscaycucho. After meeting the porters, hike through a little-visited section of the trail gently winding up the valley until arriving to the Incan ruins at Q'oriwayrachina. Enjoy a picnic lunch surrounded by stones from more than 200 structures. Crossing the Urubamba River at Q'ente arrive to an isolated campsite amidst Inca terracing and nearby the archaeological sites of Wayna Q'ente and Llaqtapata which you can visit at your leisure in the evening. Hike details: 6.8 miles, approximately 5-6 hours

- B, L, D - camping

DAY 5 Llaqtapata to Llulluchapampa

Continuing up the Cusichaca Valley you reach the small indigenous community of Huayllabamba. After glimpsing into the life and traditions of the high Andes, make your ascent to a large Pampa below the first pass to where your camp awaits perched for a breathtaking sunset and sunrise views of Mount Huayanay. Ascending this narrow hanging valley with views to the cloudforest, you'll see the very rare Andean Quenua tree. Hike details: 5.6 miles, 6 hours

- B, L, D - camping

DAY 6 Llulluchapampa to Phuyupatamarca

Begin the most challenging day of hiking with a steady ascent until rewarded with big Andean views from the 13,692-ft Warmiwanusqa Pass. From here head down towards the Pacamayo River and up the other side of the valley to the Runkuraqay atop the second pass. Visit the Sayacmarca ruins after just entering the cloudforest. A beautiful location overlooking the Aobamba Valley, it affords a respite for a leisurely walk through the imposing structures often enshrouded by clouds. Continuing along the ridge you'll see the majestic Mount Salkantay and the silhouette of Mount Pumasillo to the north on the horizon. Arriving at Phuyupatamarca Ruins, the village on the edge of the clouds, continue just beyond to your isolated camp.

Hike details: 8.7 miles, 7-8 hours

- B, L, D - camping

DAY 7 Phuyupatamarca to Machu Picchu

Begin today's trek after visiting the Phuyupatamarca ruins and winding sharply down into increasingly dense cloudforest to the well-restored ruins of Winay Wayna. Continue on until you cross through Intipunku - the Sun Gate - as the Incas did long ago for your first bird's-eye view to the Lost City of Machu Picchu. Arriving to the Sun Gate in the evening helps avoid crowds and allows you to first see Machu Picchu when it is less visited. From here you will descend to Machu Picchu Pueblo to toast your feat of retracing the ancient Incan pathway to Machu Picchu and your upcoming full-day exploration of the site.

Hike details: 8.1 miles, 8 hours

- B, L, D - Andina Luxury

DAY 8 Machu Picchu

Early risers can watch the sunrise from the Machu Picchu citadel. This incredibly vast archeological site - lost to the world until well into the twentieth century - is perched amongst Andean peaks and lush cloud forest making it one of the most breathtaking sights in the world. You'll have the opportunity to get a complete guided tour of the site as you begin to unlock the mystery of the Inca, and will also have plenty of time to explore the ruins on your own. Lunch at the adjacent Sanctuary Lodge means you're able to enjoy the whole day without leaving awe-inspiring Machu Picchu. After descending from the ruins, take the afternoon train to the Sacred Valley continuing by private van to Cusco for the evening. With advance notice it can be arranged so you can make the early morning climb of Huayna Picchu mountain.*
